Sunday of Divine Mercy
Sunday — April 28, 2019
The Gospel Reading is: John 20:19–31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his Disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

Divine Mercy/ Second Sunday of Easter

The Message and Devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy, is based on the writings of Saint Faustina Kowalska. She was an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a diary recording the revelations she received about God's mercy. Even before her death in 1938, the devotion to The Divine Mercy had begun to spread. The message is simple, it is that God loves us – all of us. And, he wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy. Divine Mercy website.

Stewardship / April 28th Divine Mercy Sunday

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

John 20:21

Jesus offers two messages to his followers: be at peace, and get to work. As stewards, our work is to build up the kingdom Jesus preached, the kingdom of justice, love and peace.

Prayer for Vocations

O God, hear our prayer and let our cry come unto You. Bless our Diocese of Savannah with many vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life. Give the men and women you call the light to understand Your gift, and the love to follow always in the footsteps of Your priestly Son. Amen.

Family Promise and Club 247

Family Promise is in need of:
Walmart Gift Cards

(Please put gift cards in Office Box.)

Family Promise helps homeless families

Club 247 For as little as $2.47 a week, you can help put an end to homelessness.

Flyers are on the hallway bulletin board.

Thank you for your generosity!

The Martyr's Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, reward the apostolic zeal of Friar Pedro de Corpa and his four companion friars (Blas, Miguel, Antonio, and Francisco) who labored for the spiritual well-being of the native Guala people of Georgia, and gave their lives in witness to the Christian faith. Through their merits and intercession graciously grant the favor I humbly ask of You, so that, for the glory of Your Name, their heroic sacrifice may be officially recognized by the Church. Amen
