The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Sunday — June 23, 2019

Gospel Reading: Luke 9:11B—17

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured. As the day was drawing to a close, the Twelve approached him and said, "Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions; for we are in a deserted place here." He said to them, "Give them some food ourselves." They replied, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have, unless we ourselves go and buy food for all these people."

Now the men there numbered about five thousand. Then he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty." They did so and made them all sit down. Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.

Luke 9:17

The story of the loaves and fishes ends with the suggestion that God's generosity is overflowing. There are many ways of declaring how much God has done for us. Probably the best way is not in words but in action. Jesus often encouraged his followers to care for the needy in their midst, suggesting that actions are far more powerful than words.

The Martyr's Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, reward the apostolic zeal of Friar Pedro de Corpa and his four companion Friars (Blas, Miguel, Antonio, and Francisco) who labored for the spiritual well-being of the native Guala people of Georgia, and gave their lives in witness to the Christian faith. Through their merits and intercession graciously grant the favor I humbly ask of You, so that, for the glory of Your Name, their heroic sacrifice may be officially recognized by the Church. Amen
