Fifth Sunday of Easter
Sunday — May 7, 2023
Gospel Reading: John 14:1–12

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way." Thomas said to him, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?"

Jesus said to him, I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him." Philip said to him, "Master, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father.

Whoever has seen me has seen the Father.

How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on my own. The Father who dwells in me is doing his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else, believe because of the works themselves. Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes in me will do the works that I do, and will do greater ones than these, because I am going to the Father."

Our Little Free Library (LFL) is now set up!

Here are some things to be aware of:

A LFL is intended to serve the whole community/neighborhood, not just, say, our parishioners. Although I was considering placing it near the labyrinth, I decided to relocate it in our driveway area. The reason is that it needs to be visible for vehicles on the highway and pedestrians on the sidewalk.

Our LFL is not handicap accessible at this time. This is not a requirement of the LFL organization, and many are not. We can look at making it handicap accessible in the future. For now, handicapped people can be assisted by those who are not.

A LFL is not meant to be a kind of drive thru service, so it is not located adjacent to the curb. People are expected to park in one of our parking spaces and walk to it. Some people will naturally park in our driveway in order to use it, and I do not see this as a problem unless an event is going on in the church. I suspect that no one would be so discourteous to do this when traffic is steadily going in and out of our parking lot (see as it would block those trying to exit).

In terms of safety, people can stand in front of our LFL and be about the same distance from our driveway as they would be if standing on a sidewalk. Keep in mind that the only time there is significant traffic in our driveway is just before an event (Mass, Religious Education classes, Knights of Columbus meetings, etc.) and when it lets out. Those concerned about vehicles driving in the area of the LFL can simply select a time to use it accordingly. For example, most Catholics arrive for Mass (or other event) within ten minutes of its starting time, and leave within ten minutes of it ending. Other than this, our driveway does not have a significant volume of traffic. Once we open up the second driveway, it will have even less.

Obviously, small children would not use our LFL without being accompanied by an adult or at least a larger kid because a small kid could not reach the books. Because people can use our LFL at any time day or night, it is positioned underneath one of our street lights. Placing it any further from the curb would diminish the amount of light. The base of the LFL is filled with sand as is a portion of its stand. The wind is not going to knock it over unless it is a very powerful storm.

Our LFL is freestanding and the flagstone courtyard is actually made of removable stone mats laid upon the grass. Therefore, the entire setup is mobile. If someone has concerns about the location, they can address them to the Parish Council. If the concerns are deemed credible, then we will relocate the LFL.

Concerning the Use of our LFL:

Although it is called a "library", a LFL does NOT involve signing out books, borrowing them for a while, and returning them. When visiting an LFL, one may take and keep any book they want (there is no limit). They are free to return books they don't want to keep to our LFL (or any other LFL). Moreover, they are free to donate books to a LFL by simply placing them in the box.

Our LFL is being registered with the LFL organization and will appear on the GPS of the LFL app. I am the official steward of our LFL. I will inspect it on a regular basis, and remove any inappropriate material.

If someone has a large quantity of books to donate (i.e., too many to put in the box), they can drop them off in the church and I will store them. I will periodically replenish our LFL from this book stash, or take them to other LFL locations.

FWIW, there are only two other LFLs in the Kathleen area, both of which are deep within neighborhoods. Our LFL is the most visible and accessible to the general public. Other than this, there are two LFLs in Perry (one near the hospital and one at the old courthouse). There are nine spread out in Warner Robins and Centerville, and one on base. Therefore, our LFL provides a much-needed service as far as the whole program goes. For more information, please visit: littlefreelibrary.org

God bless, Fr. Eric

Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church

The Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church is available for purchase at St. Patrick Catholic Church for $5 each.

It covers the essential aspects of our Catholic Faith in a “question and answer” format (used previously in the Baltimore Catechism).

Call the church office at 478-987-4213, Monday through Thursday, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., for details on how to get your copy.

(We are CLOSED for lunch from Noon to 1 p.m.)

St. Patrick Church has its own myParish app available for our parishioners to download on Apple iPhones and Android phones.

St. Patrick Church will be able to communicate with all parishioners via messages/notifications that keep you in the loop with what is going on in our church.

You will be able to quickly reply to messages and/or RSVP for upcoming events.

Download myParishApp by taking a picture of the QR code or, text APP to phone number 55321 and stay connected all week long.

CelebrateRecovery

a ministry of Sacred Heart Catholic Church

Changing lives one miracle at a time!

Our last lesson introduced us to INVENTORY, where we identify our shortcomings and get a clear picture of how our behavior affected ourselves and others. This week we will kick off a two-part series where we look at the SPIRITUAL aspects of our INVENTORY beginning with our relationships with others, our priorities, our attitudes, and our integrity. We will look at how our past actions in each of these areas had a negative or a positive effect on our lives and the lives of others.

Experience a safe and welcoming place and see what Celebrate Recovery can do for you this Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Social Hall.

Safe place! No mask, No judgement, Absolute Confidentiality.

Welcome to all visitors at St. Patrick Catholic Church. We are glad you are here worshipping with us. If you attend Mass on a regular basis at St. Patrick, would you please consider making us your home church?

Registration forms are in the basket (underneath the Office Box) in the Narthex. Fill one out and put it in the Office Box. Or, you may take the registration form home with you and fill it out. Then, bring it back to Mass with you and drop it in the Office Box. You may also register online at our church website: www.stpatrickga.org/home is a comprehensive set of procedures established by the USCCB in June 2002 for addressing allegations of sexual abuse of minors by Catholic clergy.

The Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People

The Charter also includes guidelines for reconciliation, healing, accountability, and prevention of future acts of abuse.

<http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/child-and-youth-protection/charter.cfm>.

Please contact the church office: if you have any changes in your email, phone, address, or military status; if you have moved or joined another parish; if you are homebound (or in a nursing home) and would like to receive Holy Communion; if you need to be added to our church or military prayer list; if a parishioner is in the hospital, or near death, and needs Anointing of the Sick.

Do you have something to go in the bulletin?

Email Lyn at: saintpataa@stpatrickga.org. Sending an e-mail is best, but you may call the church office, or drop a note in the office box. Deadline for submission is at least 2 weeks before your information needs to be in the bulletin!

Celiac Disease, Non-Celiac Gluten Sensitivity, and Wheat Allergy

We have special hosts, approved by the Vatican, with a very low wheat gluten content. Please call the church office and let us know if you need this type of host.
