Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday — September 24, 2023

Gospel Reading: Matthew 20:1–6a

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Going out about nine o'clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.' So they went off. And he went out again around noon, and around three o'clock, and did likewise. Going out about five o'clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day?' They answered, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard.' When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.' When those who had started about five o'clock came, each received the usual daily wage. So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat.' He said to one of them in reply, 'My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?' Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

The choir sings the same songs at the 5 p.m. Saturday evening Mass, and the 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday mornings. Pick the time that works for your worship schedule.

Practice If every week is not something you can commit to, think about joining us for our big celebration choir that sings at the Christmas evening services and during Holy Week. For those occasions, we begin practicing 4 to 6 weeks ahead. Watch future bulletins for exact practice dates.

If you feel called to join WHIM (With Him in Music) which provides music for the 5 p.m. Sunday Mass, for more information, contact Josh Pangborn at 478-396-5515 for more information.
