Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday — October 8, 2023

Gospel Reading: Matthew 21:33–43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures: The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; by the Lord has this been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes? Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

Celebrate Recovery
 Changing lives one miracle at a time!

Up to this point, all our efforts have been focused on working on our issues and then thoroughly cleaning our house so we can move on with a clean slate and clear conscience. But we are human, and despite our progress in healing, we will continue to occasionally say and do things that hurt others. That's where DAILY INVENTORY comes in. It's a chance, each day, to do some "spring cleaning" so that our actions don't have a chance to fester, accumulate and cause us to backslide. To learn about DAILY INVENTORY and so much more, please join us this Tuesday—October 10th.

Safe place!

NO mask, NO judgement,
 Absolute Confidentiality.

Experience a safe and welcoming place and see what Celebrate Recovery can do for you this Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Social Hall.
