Gospel Reading: Matthew 22:34–40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

All Saint's Day

Wednesday — November 1st is a Holy Day of Obligation. There will be Mass at 10 a.m. and at 6:30 p.m. here at St. Patrick Church.

All Saint's Day, celebrated on November 1st, is a day dedicated to honoring all the saints, known and unknown, who have played significant roles in the history of Christianity.

The roots of All Saint's Day can be traced back to the early Christian church, where it was originally celebrated in the 4th century.

St. Augustine of Hippo (5th century): His writings on the communion of saints and the importance of remembering and venerating the departed souls greatly influenced the development of All Saint's Day.

Pope Gregory III first instituted it in the eighth century to respond to the Pantheon's conversion in Rome. This ancient temple, once dedicated to all Roman gods, was transformed into a Christian church, known as the Church of St. Mary and the Martyrs, to honor the Christian martyrs and saints. To commemorate this transformation, Pope Gregory III established a day of celebration dedicated to all saints, known as "All Hallows' Day," which later evolved into All Saint's Day.

In the 13th century, Pope Gregory IV officially established November 1st as the date for the celebration, solidifying its place in the liturgical calendar. The Church aimed to commemorate not only the known saints but also those whose names were lost to history, emphasizing the universality of sainthood.
