Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time Sunday — November 19, 2023 Gospel Reading:

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one -- to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

"After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'

Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

The St. Patrick parish Book of Remembrance is out in the Narthex, and will remain there throughout the month of November.

If there has been a death in your family or among your friends this past year, please write their name in the book in the Narthex. You only need to write the name in the book one time (not every year).

Fr. Eric will pray for all names listed throughout the month of November.

2023 Coat Drive Update

The Knights of Columbus wish to thank everyone who supported the 2023 Coat Drive. We are pleased to report that through the generosity of the parish 68 coats and 47 sweaters were collected! All of the donations will be distributed by the Christian Service Center.

Everything donated will help keep many of our brothers and sisters warm during cold weather.

May God richly bless each of you for your kindness and generosity.

Proper Disposal of Sacramental Items

The Knights of Columbus (K of C) will collect your worn or broken Sacramental items and dispose of them in a reverent manner, according to church teachings. The collection jar is on the Knights of Columbus table in the Narthex.

Rosaries will be inspected, then repaired and reused (if possible). Please do not leave family heirlooms in the jar.

!!! Attention !!!

As a security measure, doors to the church are locked shortly after the Mass begins.
 If you arrive late, please wait outside the door and an usher will let you inside.

You may exit the building at any time through any door that is convenient.

Please note:
None of the locks on the doors prevent exiting (per fire code).

Celiac Disease, Non-Celiac Gluten Sensitivity, and Wheat Allergy

We have special hosts, approved by the Vatican, with a very low wheat gluten content. Please call the church office and let us know if you need this type of host.

Celebrate Recovery

A Ministry of Sacred Heart Catholic Church

When you place God first in your life, you realize that everything you have is a gift from Him. You realize that your recovery is not dependent on or based on material things, it is built upon your faith and your desire to follow Jesus Christ's direction. It is through our actions, however, that we demonstrate to God and others the commitment we have to our faith in Jesus Christ and our gratitude for what He has done in our lives. We demonstrate this by giving back the gifts we were given though carrying the message of Celebrate Recovery and through acts of stewardship. Learn more about GIVE by joining us this Tuesday evening.

Changing lives one miracle at a time. Safe place!
NO mask, NO judgement, Absolute Confidentiality.

Experience a safe and welcoming place and see what Celebrate Recovery can do for you this Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Social Hall.

Advent Scripture and Prayer Sharing with the Sisters

Come join the Trinitarian Sisters at their home at 112 Knob Hill Drive, Warner Robins from 9:30a.m. to 11 a.m. on Saturday — December 2nd for their Sixth Annual Advent gathering.

Please contact Sr. Terry at 334 322-3214 or email her at: trinityministriesdiosav@gmail.com to reserve a place!

2024 Annual Women's Retreat – Beloved Daughters of the Father

January 19–21, 2024

Online registration is now available!

Blessed Trinity Shrine Retreat
107 Holy Trinity Road | Fort Mitchell, AL 36856

Join us for a retreat on forgiveness, mercy, and healing with Meg Albertini as she ties in women from scripture. This is a retreat for women in all walks of life. We have connected the image of a hyssop for this retreat – the Biblical symbolism is for cleansing the soul.

As women, we are uniquely made to gather, ponder, hold, and birth holiness into the world. We do this simply and quietly by being fully present to Jesus, ourselves, and others – we are Eucharistic. Come to fully embrace your true calling and see yourself through the eyes of the Father as his Most Beloved Daughter!

During the weekend you will have the opportunity to experience prayer, presentations, holy conversations, time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and close with a Eucharistic Celebration.
