First Sunday of Advent —
December 3, 2023
Gospel Reading: Mark 13:33–37

Jesus said to his disciples: “Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come. It is like a man traveling abroad. He leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his own work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch. Watch, therefore; you do not know when the lord of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning. May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to all: ‘Watch!’”

Advent, which starts the Church’s liturgical year, begins Sunday — December 3rd this year. The Advent season is a time to prepare our hearts and minds for the celebration of the Lord’s birth.

The circle of the wreath, which has no beginning or end, symbolizes the eternity of God.

The candles also have their own special significance. The four candles represent the four weeks of Advent, and one candle is lit each Sunday.

The first candle, which is purple, symbolizes hope. It is sometimes called the “Prophesy Candle” in remembrance of the prophets, especially Isaiah, who foretold the birth of Christ. It represents the expectation felt in anticipation of the coming Messiah.

Plenary Indulgence Opportunity

In honor of the 800th anniversary of the Christmas at Greccio (where St. Francis of Assisi created the first nativity scene), the Vatican has approved a plenary indulgence from December 8, 2023 through February 2, 2024.

Indulgence is obtained by visiting a parish run by Franciscans and praying in front of its nativity scene. The closest such parishes are St. Peter Claver and Holy Spirit. Both of these Churches are in Macon.

Likewise, “those who are sick or unable to participate physically can equally benefit, from the gift of plenary indulgence, by offering their sufferings to the Lord or carrying out practices of piety.”

The other requirements for obtaining a plenary indulgence apply (see “Plenary Indulgences – General Conditions” at: <https://www.ewtn.com/catholicism/devotions/conditions-13362>)

2024 Annual Women's Retreat – Beloved Daughters of the Father

January 19–21, 2024

Online registration is now available!

Blessed Trinity Shrine Retreat
107 Holy Trinity Road | Fort Mitchell, AL 36856

Join us for a retreat on forgiveness, mercy, and healing with Meg Albertini as she ties in women from scripture. This is a retreat for women in all walks of life. We have connected the image of a hyssop for this retreat – the Biblical symbolism is for cleansing the soul.

As women, we are uniquely made to gather, ponder, hold, and birth holiness into the world. We do this simply and quietly by being fully present to Jesus, ourselves, and others – we are Eucharistic. Come to fully embrace your true calling and see yourself through the eyes of the Father as his Most Beloved Daughter!

During the weekend you will have the opportunity to experience prayer, presentations, holy conversations, time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, and close with a Eucharistic Celebration.
