Third Sunday of Lent
Sunday — March 3, 2024
Gospel Reading: John 2:13–25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken. While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

Wounded by God:
Redemptive Healing in Christ and His Church

The Bible describes God as wounding us (e.g. Job 5 and Hosea 6). Such language seems shocking, but why does God wound us? God does so in order that He might heal us. When we, sinners as we are, wound others we do so in order to harm, but not so with God. God wounds us so that He might fill those wounds with His healing and redemptive love. The way to salvation is paved by the wood of the Cross. Join us for a deep dive into the Bible as we explore wounds, healing, and redemption.

Celebrate Recovery Are you confessing the same old sin(s) every time you go to confession? That's because you are treating the symptom rather than the cause. At Celebrate Recovery we work on our character defects, which are the root cause of our negative behaviors. Heal the character defect, and you are less likely to commit that infraction that our pastors hear you confess week after week. Give us a try for just four weeks and see what wonderful things will happen in your life.

Celebrate Recovery is NOT just about addiction!!! Worldwide, less than 1 in 3 attend CR for substance abuse, and in our ministry at Sacred Heart the number is considerably less. So, if your New Year's resolution is to clear some cobwebs in your life and/or to rejuvenate your relationship with God, please consider this life-changing ministry. You are not alone.

Safe place! NO mask, NO judgement, Absolute Confidentiality. Experience a safe and welcoming place and see what Celebrate Recovery can do for you. Join us every Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Social Hall.
