Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday — June 23, 2024
Gospel Reading: Mark 4:35–41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

St. Patrick Children's Choir

There has been renewed interest in re-establishing a St. Patrick Children's choir. We did have a successful Children's choir under Mrs. Carol Strandburg until her illness and passing. We truly can honor her memory by re-establishing this beautiful ministry.

Children would meet before Religious Education classes on Wednesday afternoons, and sing at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday liturgies, once per month, during the school year. This would include Christmas Eve and Easter Sunday liturgies.

We would need a pianist/keyboard player who would be willing to commit to practices and liturgies. We have two adult volunteers who have expressed interest in leading/directing the group. Please send all interested parties and questions to Arlene Roberge at: roberge.arlene@gmail.com.

Please pray for:

The Georgia Martyrs

In the late sixteenth century, five Spanish
Franciscans came to (what is now) coastal Georgia to minister to the native Guale people.

In 1597, between September 14th and September 17th, four were murdered.
