Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sunday — June 30, 2024

Gospel Reading: Mark 5:21–43

When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered around him, and he stayed close to the sea. One of the synagogue officials, named Jairus, came forward. Seeing him he fell at his feet and pleaded earnestly with him, saying, "My daughter is at the point of death. Please, come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live." He went off with him, and a large crowd followed him and pressed upon him. There was a woman afflicted with hemorrhages for twelve years. She had suffered greatly at the hands of many doctors and had spent all that she had. Yet she was not helped but only grew worse. She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured." Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction. Jesus, aware at once that power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who has touched my clothes?" But his disciples said to Jesus, "You see how the crowd is pressing upon you, and yet you ask, 'Who touched me?'" And he looked around to see who had done it. The woman, realizing what had happened to her, approached in fear and trembling. She fell down before Jesus and told him the whole truth. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured of your affliction." While he was still speaking, people from the synagogue official's house arrived and said, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the teacher any longer?" Disregarding the message that was reported, Jesus said to the synagogue official, "Do not be afraid; just have faith." He did not allow anyone to accompany him inside except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. When they arrived at the house of the synagogue official, he caught sight of a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. So he went in and said to them, "Why this commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep." And they ridiculed him. Then he put them all out. He took along the child's father and mother and those who were with him and entered the room where the child was. He took the child by the hand and said to her, "Talitha koum," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" The girl, a child of twelve, arose immediately and walked around. At that they were utterly astounded. He gave strict orders that no one should know this and said that she should be given something to eat.

THEOLOGY ON TAP!

Welcome to a new ministry at St Patrick Catholic Church. It's geared towards young adults and college age students

Our first meeting will be at 7 p.m., on Saturday – July 13, 2024 in St. Kevin's Hall.

Our initial meeting will be at church until we establish our group. Then, we will decide where we want our meetings to be held.

Contact Kathleen Carter at kvcarter@gmail.com for further details.

St. Patrick Children's Choir

There has been renewed interest in re-establishing a St. Patrick Children's choir. We did have a successful Children's choir under Mrs. Carol Strandburg until her illness and passing. We truly can honor her memory by re-establishing this beautiful ministry.

Children would meet before Religious Education classes on Wednesday afternoons, and sing at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday liturgies, once per month, during the school year. This would include Christmas Eve and Easter Sunday liturgies.

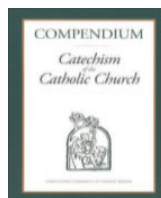

We would need a pianist/keyboard player who would be willing to commit to practices and liturgies. We have two adult volunteers who have expressed interest in leading/directing the group. Please send all interested parties and questions to Arlene Roberge at: roberge.arlene@gmail.com.
